

THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE

Burnley

CELEBRATING 125 YEARS OF HORTICULTURAL EDUCATION 1891-2016

In 2016, the University of Melbourne's Burnley Campus celebrates 125 years of continuous horticultural education, a record virtually unmatched across the globe. To mark this, the University is hosting a number of events at the campus and we invite you to come along and help us celebrate this unique milestone.

BURNLEY FESTIVAL

Showcasing the art and science of horticulture

When: Saturday 30 April, 10.00am - 3.00pm

Where: Burnley Campus 500 Yarra Blvd., Richmond

Cost: Free. Please register at:
www.tinyurl.com/burnleyfestival

Activities include:

- Plant Advisory Clinic: Bring along your plant samples where Burnley plant experts will help with plant identification, pest and disease identification and controls, planting design, plant selection advice and related issues.
- Lectures on the Lawn: with Burnley Alumni.
- Contemporary and heritage garden tours: Visit the sunken gardens, green roofs, & significant trees.
- Research seminars: Learn about how plants make our cities more liveable.
- Workshops: Attend a range of specialist garden and horticultural activities.
- Back to Burnley: Calling all alumni! Catch up with fellow Burnley graduates.
- Plant Sale: Plants for purchase (Friends of Burnley Gardens).
- Relax in the gardens: Grab a bite to eat from the food trucks and soak up the atmosphere.

Free activities: plant clinics, gardening tips, seminars, alumni event, food trucks and more.

All welcome

TOWARDS A BLUEPRINT FOR A GREENER CITY: PUBLIC SEMINAR SERIES

DATES: Tuesday, 7 June

Tuesday, 16 August

Tuesday, 11 October

Tuesday, 15 November

When: 6.00pm - 8.00pm

Where: Burnley Campus Hall

Cost: FREE (please register your attendance): tinyurl.com/burnley125

1. It's hot in the city tonight: using GI to mitigate climate change

2. Rumble in the (urban) jungle: novel science research driving green cities

3. Urban plantings as living laboratories for climate change

4. Where people, landscapes and biodiversity collide

FOR FURTHER DETAILS ABOUT THE EVENTS AND BURNLEY 125TH ANNIVERSARY VISIT: tinyurl.com/burnley125

INVITATION

Burnley Festival

Saturday 30 April 2016, 10.00am – 3.00pm
500 Yarra Boulevard Richmond

2016 marks 125 years of continuous horticultural education at University of Melbourne's Burnley Campus with a series of events planned for the year to celebrate this achievement. The major event for the year is the Burnley Festival to be held on Saturday, April 30, from 10.00 am to 3.00 pm.

Showcasing the art and science of horticulture, the day will be filled with a wide range of FREE activities for you to enjoy. Highlights include an Alumni reunion (including a morning tea at 10.30am), plant advisory clinics, talks in the Gardens with Burnley Alumni, green infrastructure and heritage garden tours, research seminars, workshops for kids and adults, plant sale and more.

So please join us, explore the gardens, grab a bite to eat from the food trucks and soak up the atmosphere.

To register for the festival visit <http://tinyurl.com/burnleyfestival>, and to view a full activities program for the day visit <http://tinyurl.com/burnley125>.